HARLEM RACING.

Harlem seems to have most of the bad luck in the way of weather. Yesterday was the beginning of their fifth two weeks' meeting and the afternoon was cold, wet and raw. Still, the regulars turned out in full force and the attendance was all that could be expected on such a day. The card originally offered was an extra good one, but owing to the condition of the track it was hurt by extensive scratching.

As a rule the races were run to form and the sport was rather tame; but the spectators were treated to one sensation and also one very close finish.

The sensation was the defeat of Montgomery in the fourth race, and with him fell a bunch of big bettors as well as a majority of the sure thing players. Track and everything considered Montgomery did certainly look like a sure winner. Burns was up and that made it all the stronger. Three to ten was the first and best price offered against Magrane's sprinter. "Jack the Bookie" put this price up and he got a $1,000 bet at that price, then Montgomery's price settled to 1 to 4. This looked like royal interest on one's money, and the way in which the tight speculators opened up was a caution.

At the first break the field was off with Montgomery flying a half length in front. The horse was at his best and Burns went right on with him hoping to stop the others off in the first half. Harry Thoburn, however, refused to be stopped, and right at Montgomery's throat latch, went the first half in 49 1/2 seconds. This was phenomenal time considering the condition of the track. At the head of the stretch Montgomery and Harry Thoburn were racing like a team and then it was only a question as to which would be the first one to show the white feather. Montgomery never was very stout-hearted, and he was the first one to succumb under pressure, and when he did go he collapsed all in a heap. This took place about the eighth post when he swerved badly and came near falling over the inside fence. After that Harry Thoburn had everything his own way and won rather easily by about a half length.

In the last race, a three-quarter selling affair, was where the close finish took place. It stirred the crowd up to its highest pitch of excitement. The Harlem stand is built on such an angle that from where the most of the spectators see the races it is almost impossible for them to have any idea what the winner is when it is at all close, consequently this makes it embarrassing for the judges. They, and they only are in a position to see and rarely make a mistake as to placing the horses, and when a crowd gathers and makes a lot of noise after a decision has been made it makes a mistaken and uncalled-for waste of wind and temper. There was considerable noise and bad talk after Little Jack Horner had been decided the winner over Jim Gore II., but anyone in a position to see knew that the judges were right. The finish was one of those peculiar ones with one horse on the extreme inside and the other beyond the center of the track on the outside. Little Jack Horner happened to have the rail and he got the decision which was perfectly correct. Hermoso, who finished third in this race, was much the best and but for being repeatedly bumped by Little Jack Horner when coming through the stretch he could not have lost.

What er Lou won from a bunch of other good old "has beens" very easily in the first race. Behind him were such once good ones as Goodrich, Macy and Hugh Penny. All are stake winners and at some time or other were record-holders.

"Bud" May knew he had a cinch on the second race with Avenstoke and told all of his friends so. The colt opened at 3 to 1, was backed down to 11 to 5, and less, and won as he pleased from Gussie Fay.

The third race was a gift to Sam Lazarus Esq., who is a mudlark of high degree. This colt galloped Sea Lion to exhaustion in the first half mile and then won running away.

The fourth was the Montgomery race and the fifth was nothing but a cakewalk for Annowan. On the latter Abe Jacobs, of the Olympic Theater, made a "killing." He had several commissioners out to play it and averaged 4 to 1 for his money.

Some time ago DAILY RACING FORM charged Florizar with being a sulker. Mr. Scoggin, who owns the colt, says this is incorrect. He states that Florizar is a slow beginner and as he is a big over-grown youngster, he never has a chance to really get to going in sprinting distance races. Mr. Scoggin has had many good racehorses in his time, but predicts that Florizar will be one of the best, if not the best, three-year old he ever owned.

IROQUOIS AND SENSATION DEAD.

Two great sons of Leamington have died within a few days. They were P. Lorillard's Sensation and General W. H. Jackson's Iroquois. Sensation's fame as a racehorse was confined to his two-year-old career when he won eight races and met with no defeat. A split hoof led to his retirement to the stud where his success has been a tribute to his greatness as a worthy representative of a splendid line of racehorses. Today his two-year-old son Democrat is the best of his age in England and he stands second on the list of winning sires of the year in that country. Iroquois was the more noted of the two as a race horse, his fame as the only American winner of the Epsom Derby and the St. Leger being world wide. In the stud he has begotten many fine racehorses of which none were better than the two brothers Huron and G. W. Johnson. Messrs. Bromley & Co.'s Windmere that ran third in this year's Futurity is one of his sons. The loss of such grand horses is severe to their owners and the breeding interests of this country alike.

COMMITTEES CALLED.

Chairman Joseph A. Murphy sends the following notice for the members of the designated committees of the American Turf Congress:

St. Louis, Sept. 18, 1899.

The License and Rules Committees will meet at the Wellington Hotel at 10:30 in the morning.

J. A. MURPHY.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Joe Hill, the well-known jockey, has retired from the turf. The famous little fellow has returned to his old home at Columbus, Ohio, accompanied by his wife, and purchased a farm near the city. In his many years as a jockey he has accumulated a fortune, and now, being at the age when a quiet home life is to be properly appreciated, he has concluded to be a stock farmer.

At Gravesend, Saturday, the stewards suspended O'Connor for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding and reported his case to the Jockey Club for further action. They also ordered that the entry of the filly Decimal be refused hereafter.

For service at San Francisco during the coming winter Barney Schreiber has bought Bannockburn and the useful three-year-old Fly by Night from Pat Dunne, and has also picked up four other horses that he thinks will prove useful on the coast.

Winner—B. h. by White—Alma Lamar. Off at the first break to a good start. Won very easily; the others were driving and staggering. What er Lou appeared stiff and sore, but found the track exactly to his liking and ran a high class race. He came from behind with a well-timed rush in the stretch. Bishop Reed did well. So did Goodrich. Both finished very strongly. Mark the latter for early action. Macy did the best he could and then retired. He was a false favorite. Ruskin and Hugh Penny raced each other to defeat in front. Pinky Potter was almost thrown over the fence on the first turn.

Scratched—14527 Prestar, 104; 14529 Periwig, 104. Overweights—Macy, 3 pounds; Pinky Potter, 2. What er Lou, place, evens; show, 1 to 3. Bishop Reed, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Goodrich, show, 7 to 5. Macy, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

Time, 13, 25 1/2, 39 1/2, 52 1/2, 59.

Winner—B. c. by Bersan—Mary Anna. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily. The next two were driving. Avenstoke was the best in the going and went to the front on call in the stretch. Had Winkfield so chosen he could have won away off. Gussie Fay showed her usual amount of speed, but tired badly and barely lasted long enough to get second place. Capron swerved badly under punishment at the end. Wig did not like the going. Man of Honor did the best he could under a weak ride. It was a procession all the way.

Scratched—14569 Highland Lad, 103; (14523) Nullah, 105; (13361) Garter, 103; 14523 True Fit, 100; 14569 Tarhill, 103; 14335 Bangalore, 100; 14355 Erla d'Or, 100; 14491 Ida Ledford, 105.

Time, 13 1/2, 25 1/2, 37 1/2, 50, 1:04 1/2, 1:32 1/2.

Winner—B. c. by Donald A.—Duden. Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won running away; second and third were eased up. Sam Lazarus Esq. had speed to loan and raced Sea Lion dizzy in the first half. After that there was nothing to the race. Sea Lion did well and when Burns saw he had no chance to beat Sam Lazarus Esq. he eased the colt up. Newsgatherer had no excuses and finished where he belonged. Mizpah evidently did not like the mud. It was a very one-sided race. Dominick, on Sam Lazarus Esq., was kicked on the foot at the post.

Scratched—14469 Canace, 100; 14529 Farondelle, 108; 14574 Tulane, 103. Overweights—Victor Sum, 5 pounds. Sam Lazarus Esq., place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Sea Lion, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Newsgatherer, show, 1 to 2. Mizpah, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by St. Cyr—Miss Goodrich. Off at the first break. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; second driving and staggering. This was a phenomenal race from a time standpoint, considering the condition of the track. Montgomery fairly flew the first half. He is a quitter and Harry Thoburn stuck so close to him that it made him stop. They ran too fast for Mocoito. Tobe Paine was beaten off all the way.

Scratched—14245 Eight Balls, 107; (14017) Tom Kingsley, 107; 11504 Debride, 110; 14253 Sim W., 115; 14433 Free Lady, 109; (14558) Tencle, 113.

Winner—Br. c. by Logic—Annona.
Off at the first break to a fair start. Won easily; second and third the same. Annowan got a flying start and had the most speed. He is a good mud lark and Vittoe took no chances with him. Blue Lick was interfered with on the first turn and was much used in getting up. Uhlir tried to stay with Annowan in the first part of it and was raced to defeat. He does not like a heavy track. Pay the Fiddler was beaten off at the head of the stretch and Burns eased him up. The field was badly strung out at the finish.

Scratched—14525 The Bondman, 103; 14530 Glenzaber, 103; 14387 Hanlight, 100; 13880 Martha Winner—B. g. by George Kinney—Princess.

Off at the first break to a good start. The first five were all in a heap and driving to the limit. It was a very close finish. As the race was run Hermoso was far the best. Rose got him off badly and used him entirely too much in the first part of the race. Then the horse got rinned in on the rail by Little Jack Horner in the stretch and was much hampered. Little Jack Horner showed a lot of speed, was in the deepest going all the way and barely lasted long enough to win. Jim Gore II was closing fast at the end and almost got up. Watch Wordsworth. He had bad luck, but finished very strongly. He lost a lot of ground by making a wide stretch turn.
Miss Lynnah could not extend herself in the going. Heroics is a slow beginner and naturally got the worst of it.

Scratched—14570 Duty, 101; 14558 Diggs, 107; 14531 Seattle, 98.

Overweights—Brightie S, 4 pounds; Cecil, 4; W. B. Gates, 3.
